

APRIL 2020

THE FLOATING HOSPITAL

Health clinics that serve as a safeguard for the poorest New Yorkers hit hard by financial fallout from coronavirus

This recent New York Daily News article outlines why the impact has been devastating for community healthcare centers, among them, The Floating Hospital and its patients.

Site closures and reductions in services have severely inhibited their ability to serve. Amid a global pandemic, represents a huge hole in the city's social safety net.

Stretched to its breaking point, that social safety net exists thanks you you and your ongoing support

DONATE TO OUR COVID-19 APPEAL NOW

Your generous support enabled us to reopen our Queensbridge clinic with a familiar face: our former chief medical officer, Dr. David Otto.

Read More

Throughout the crisis, we've welcomed support from our neighboring communities. We're beyond grateful for donations of everything from PPE to lunches.

Read More

For even more regular updates and insights to our work, follow us on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and LinkedIn.

Thank you from all of us at The Floating Hospital!

DONATE TODAY

Grand Central Station, P.O. Box 3391, | New York, New York 10163
718-784-2240 | info@thefloatinghospital.org